

COMMAND CAFÉ

November 2021 - Native American Heritage Month

Join us as we continue to enjoy and educate ourselves through a diverse assortment of literature, media, art, film, music and more. The intent of the Command Café is to help further develop an awareness and understanding of diverse and inclusive topics within our unique community.

Each month the Command Café features a new theme or focus that highlights a particular group, topic or perspective, so make sure to check out previous Command Cafés by visiting <https://www.usfk.mil/Strength-in-Diversity/>

WHAT ARE WE...

Civil Rights, Identity & Sovereignty

Native American Perspectives of History, Law, & the Path Ahead
Library of Congress - <https://www.loc.gov/item/webcast-7118>

Noted Native American scholars, authors and civil rights activists look back at the long Native American struggle for equality, examine current barriers for sustaining community ways of life and identity and address the path ahead for Native nations and communities.

WATCHING

View this on the Library of Congress website!

LISTENING

The Native American Experience

Known as Bear Lodge to many Native Americans, Devil's Tower is a sacred place to over 20 tribes. This podcast episode by National Park Service, highlights Native American views and experiences related to the site. Listen to the podcast for free on the National Park Service's website at: <https://go.usa.gov/xek6s>

This Land Is Their Land

The Wampanoag Indians, Plymouth Colony, and the Troubled History of Thanksgiving - Written by David J. Silverman

A new look at the Plymouth colony's founding events, told with the Wampanoag people at the heart of the story. Learn more from the interview, "The Myths of the Thanksgiving Story and the Lasting Damage They Imbue," on the Smithsonian Magazine website.

READING

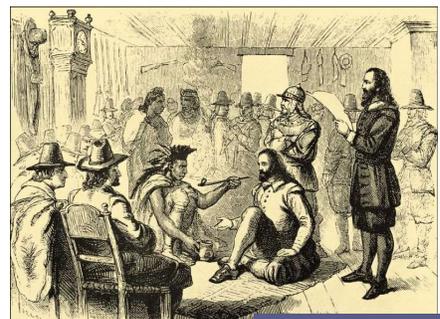

Image source: California State Library